DETAILED ACTION

1. After a detailed review of pending claims 1-34, present in Applicant's amendment filed 05/07/08, it has been determined that an election/restriction is necessary.

Although a previous Office Action was mailed rejecting all claims 1-28, Applicant has better defined the scope of said claims and added new claims 29-34. It should be noted that in the previous Office Action it was indicated that the claim language contained many objections, was not clear and required modifications in order to provide a better examination of the claims. Applicants made amendments to the claims with intent of clarifying the language. In view of these clarifications and Applicant's new claims, the scope of the claims is better defined and it has been determined that an election/restriction is necessary. Please find an election/restriction below.

Election/Restrictions

2. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-10, drawn to designing a physical object or part, classified in class 703, subclass 1.
 - II. Claims 11-15, 23-27 and 29-34, drawn to applying a positioning technique for machining utilized in contour, nonlinear or non-planar machining, classified in class 700, subclass 186 and 187.

- III. Claims 16, 18-22, drawn to applying digital positioning techniques for machining using interpolation techniques, classified in class 700, subclass 189.
- IV. Claims 17 and 28, drawn to applying digital positioning techniques for machining by mutually connecting curves, classified in class 700, subclass 186 and 187.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Invention I is directed to designing a physical object or part. Inventions II-IV are directed to related machining process. The related inventions are distinct if: (1) the inventions as claimed are either not capable of use together or can have a materially different design, mode of operation, function, or effect; (2) the inventions do not overlap in scope, i.e., are mutually exclusive; and (3) the inventions as claimed are not obvious variants. See MPEP § 806.05(j). In the instant case, the inventions as claimed are distinct because Invention I is directed to a designing processes and Inventions II-IV are directed to distinct non-obvious variants of numerical control processes.

Restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper because all these inventions listed in this action are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious search and examination burden if restriction were not required because one or more of the following reasons apply:

- (a) the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification;

- (b) the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their recognized divergent subject matter;
- (c) the inventions require a different field of search (for example, searching different classes/subclasses or electronic resources, or employing different search queries);
- (d) the prior art applicable to one invention would not likely be applicable to another invention;
- (e) the inventions are likely to raise different non-prior art issues under 35 U.S.C. 101 and/or 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected invention.

If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable upon the elected invention.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

A telephone call was made to 202-822-1100 on 08/13/08 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but Applicant/Applicant's representative was not reached.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
